UNDERCLASSMEN

The ebb and flow of human events, which at times favors Our undertaking and at other times is opposed to it, can neither make Us unduly optimistic nor discourage Our efforts, for We are counting above all on the intercession of the Immaculate Mother of Jesus.

Junior Class

Sophomore Class

Presumably the bookworms of the class ( who told a funny! ), Sophomore President Thomas Anderson, Treasurer Alice Marie Donat, with Secretary Georgia Clawson and Ronald Goodson, Vice President, have gathered in this literary corner to take a realistic pic for the Annual.

FIRST ROW: Kathleen McMurray, Jane Lauf, Jeanette Hilliard, Anna Marie Dutro, Miriam Hendrickson, Linda Larsen, Linda Walter.

Freshman I

Vice President Michael Cronquist, Secretary Kathleen McMurray, and Linda Larsen, Treasurer, listen admiringly as President William McFarland retells the experience of his frosh polio shot.

Freshman II

In the usual orderly freshman fashion, Frosh II class officers Phillip Rassier, President, Gary O'Connell, Vice President, Barbara Mertens, Secretary, and Treasurer Sheryl Leonard "cheese" conservatively.

FIRST ROW: Jo Ellen Thom, Beatrice Betit, Alberta Garrick, Barbara Mertens, Miriam Shively, Mary Leigh Primozich.

SECOND ROW: Mary Margaret Baker, Catherine Palmer, Joseph Marchand, Biron Larsen, Paul Breithaupt, Brent Curtis, Sheryl Leonard.

THIRD ROW: Barbara Whiteley, Janice McGregor, Thomas Cope, Phillip Rassier, Gary O'Connell, Eugene Donat, Colleen Schloss, Eileen McPoland.

FOURTH ROW: Deborah Koep, Tracy O'Day, Bert Romans, Dennis Treichel, James Young, Marilyn Gross, Linda Copeland.

RIGHT: Ken Koep takes a heroic back glance before departing to the grid-iron, as our wounded hero, Fred McMurray poses for a fan club picture.

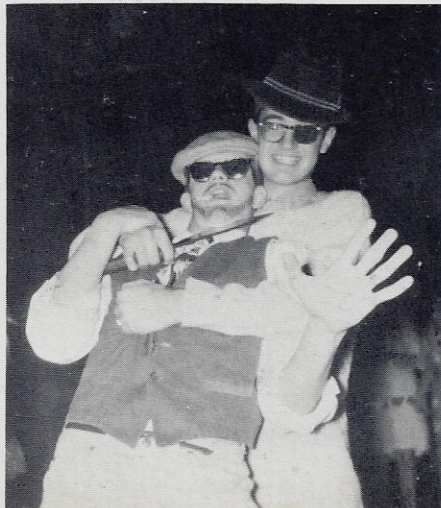

ABOVE: Man-About-School, Dennis Dimeling, is supported from the rear by a fellow handy-man, as they distribute the yule-tide wreaths throughout the school.

Not even the boogy man could scare these home-economists from gathering the goodies at their annual home-ec party.

RIGHT: Tom Anderson demonstrates the fine art of shaving to John Jaeger at a "harmless" Hallowe'en dance.

The search for and discovery of truth is the primary object of the human spirit's inner activity and it is something natural for souls created by God and marked out for eternal destinies.

--Pope John XXIII

ACTIVITIES

Eva Lefebvre, concluding the football season with Homecoming ceremonies, is crowned by Senior Class President, Joseph Webb. Her court consists of Princesses Valerie Antonson, escorted by Sophomore Class President Thomas Anderson, and Mary Tanguay, escorted by Todd Gustafson, Captain of the football team.

Barbara Brooten and Bob Rarick dance to the theme of Homecoming, "It's All in the Game".

Celebrities of the Hallowe'en dance, Ken Koss, Bob Rarick, Mary Baker, Alberta Garrick, and Bill McFarland model prize winning arrays, as Fred McMurray, the great pumpkin head, pumps as only a pumpkin kin pump....

Judi Dobroski and Dawn O'Day look peacefully on, as horrified Don Wiley beholds Pat Roche amputating Jo Ellen Meyers' arm. A tender scene of the class of '62 preparing for their Senior Ball.

Elegant socialites attending the Senior Ball take time out to enjoy music of the Gonzaga University "Starlighters".

Gracing the Senior Ball with their scintillating pulchritude, the debutantes of the class of '62 are formally presented to society.

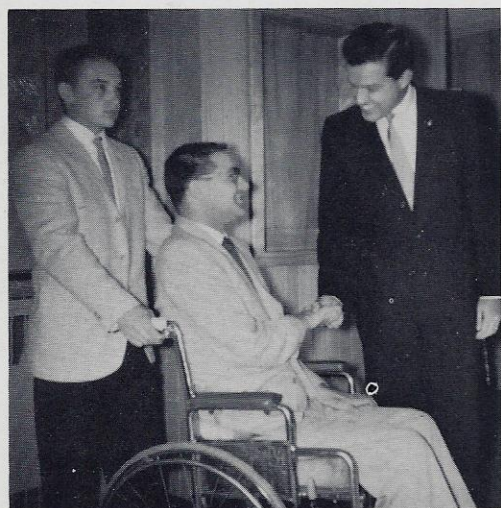

Young men of the Senior class admire the George Bertsch Memorial trophy, which is to be engraved with the name of the most outstanding example of Catholic leadership from the graduating class.

The Master Chefs of "Ground a la Cow" (more commonly known as hamburger), Todd Gustafson and Spike Twohy discover that there is more than one way to get into the Festival free.

Kay Chandler, Martin Dunbar, and Leo Kaschak view Fall Festival poster.

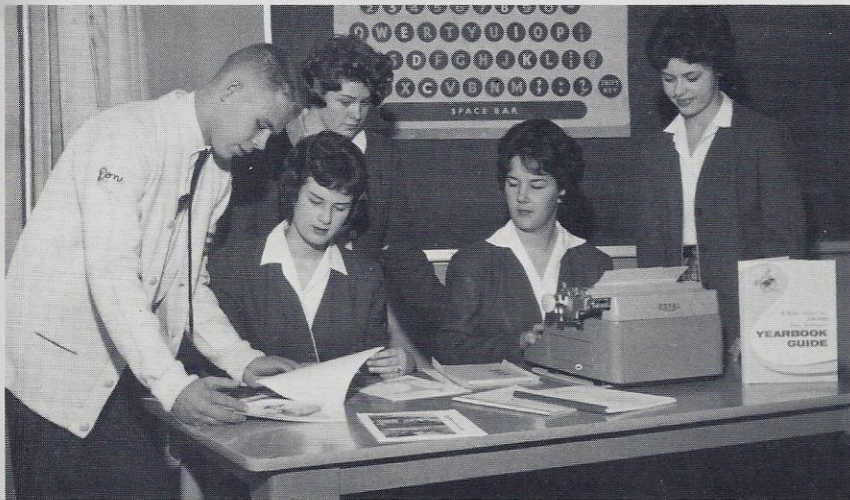

Senator Frank Church greets John Millheisler prior to addressing the student body at the Patriotic Rally.

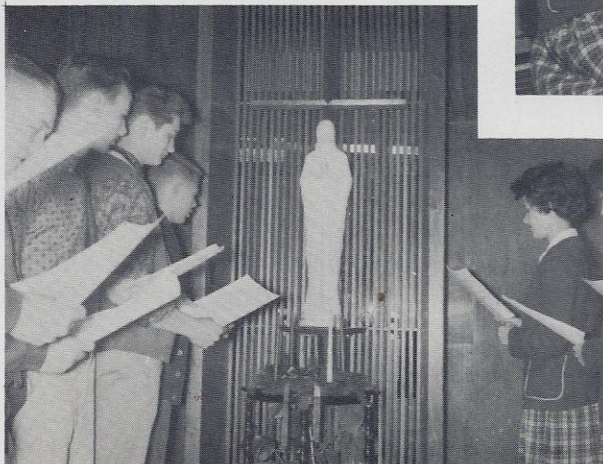

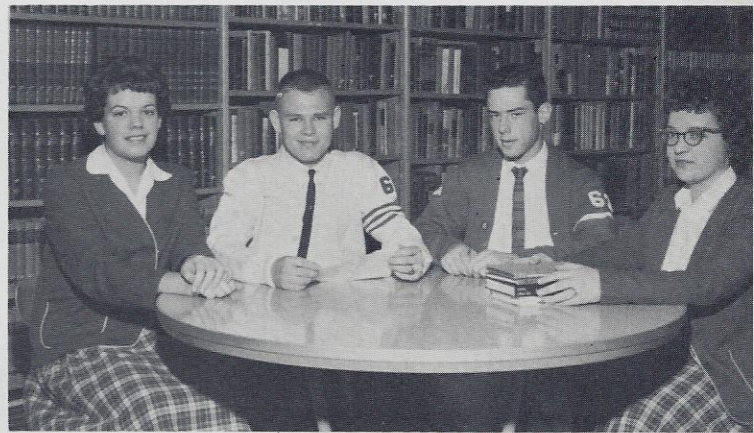

Annual scouting agents Bob Shively and Todd Gustafson scan mug shots at Gonzaga Press Conference, in hopes of gathering new clues in the case of the "Leaking Le Coeur".

With an Academy press conference under way, staff members of "The Laurel" pool ingenious ideas for the forth-coming issue.

Co-Editors Dawn O'Day and Kay Burke review various school materials with staff members Wiley, CoCo Koep, and Kathy Farland.

Sodality officers for the school year '61-'62 are Claudia Dixon, Don Wiley, Pat Roche, and Kay Chandler.

Seniors chant "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel" traditional Gregorian melody, during candle-light ceremony of Advent.

Perfectionist Judi Dobroski gives an illustration of applied typewriting technique to Yvonne Falk, Rita Hultner, and Kay Chandler.

Be gone, Rita! The weather is on our side----no school today!

Assistant Librarians Jo Ellen Meyers and Nancy Kenck look up the definition of "brownie".

Les jeunes filles de la classe française II disent, "It's Greek to me!"

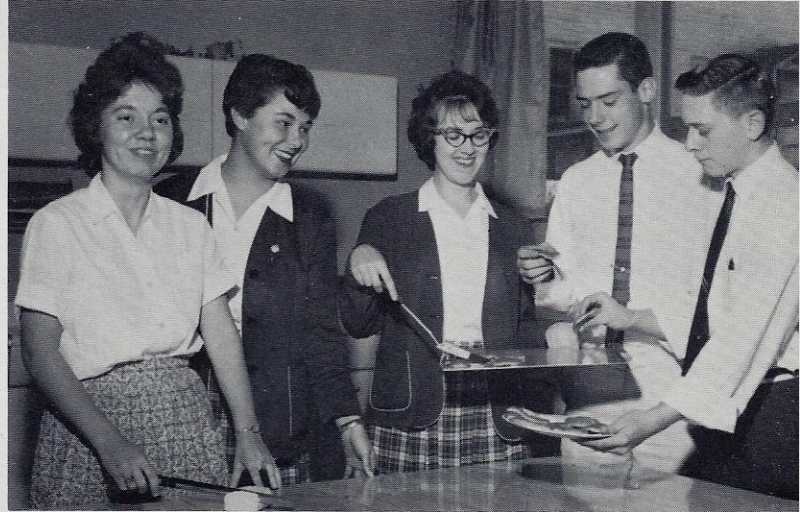

Eva Lefebvre directs the attention of Kathy Koontz and Sharon Scharff to the religious articles in the Academy display window while someone "on the inside" gets away with the goodies.

Typical examples of Academy justice, inmates of the class of '62 rejoice in their up-and-coming parole, and contemplate their future plans.

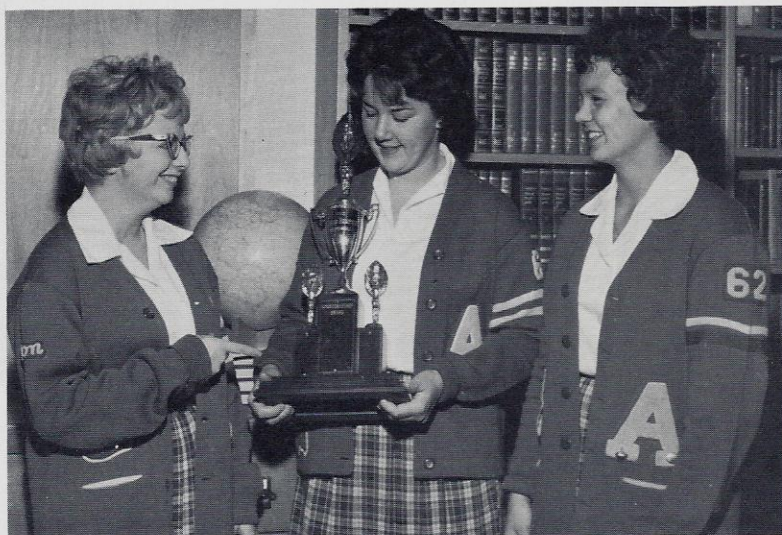

Betty Fitchner gives pointers to "Miss Homemaker of 1962", Alice Bauernfeind, as Val Antonson proves that "the test is in the taste" to Pat Roche and Pete Dunbar.

The Senior boarders discuss politics, the stock market, the necessity of fall-out shelters, and the rise and fall of Pepsi Cola, as they clutch their valuables in case of a nuclear attack.

Exhibit A, an old colleague, recounts the evils of staying out past curfew to Ken Koep, Leo Kaschak, and CoCo Koep.

Pep Club officers Mary Tanguay, Kathy Burke, and Eva Lefebvre display trophy. Pep Squad recovers for a moment from rally session.

The Drill Team completes Academy "A" with officers Kay Chandler, Kathy Burke, and Jo Ellen Holzer.

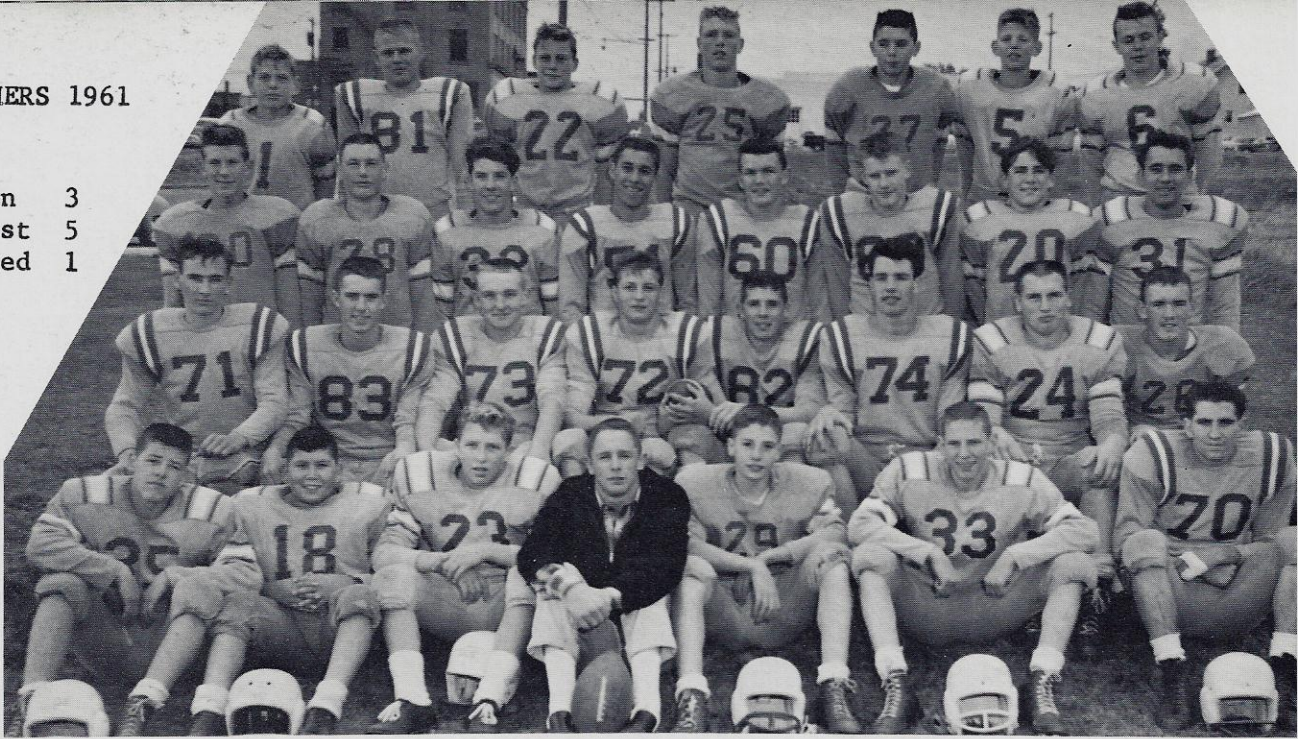

At the same time, it is also worth noting that . . . many of them show a growing inclination to devote themselves to sports activities and to many forms of the higher arts.
