IN MEMORY

MARY ANNE MASON

March 6, 1945 - February 23, 1963

We dedicate this page

in memory

of our beloved classmate,

Mary Anne,

whom God has called to her heavenly reward.

A MIRACLE

I watched as the cold, bare trees picked at the sky
With scaly fingers, as if, by doing so they might Bring forth the spring, helping it break through its shell

As a newly hatched chick would.

In their labor and toil, the stalwart trees persevered Against the smothering snow, the cruel, lashing wind and rain,

And now--they have succeeded in the very impossibility of their task.

For it is spring and the trees have been warmed by a more pitying wind,
And the rain that falls is softer as might be the touch of a mother's hand.

The green leaves have crept from within the withered hulks of the old branches.

The birds have returned, the green grass, and
The timeless miracle of spring occurs once more.

. . . Mary Anne Mason
