The sophomore class of the school was entertained by the freshman class at a Christmas program on Friday, December 20. The following program was presented:

A Christmas Welcome Gerard Martell
Christmas Time Margaret Ward
Tramp, Tramp, Tramp Julius Johnson
Grandfather's Bright Christmas Plan—

Grandfather John Guimond
Mrs. West, his daughter Josephine Flynn
Ada, his granddaughter Patricia McKenna
Vera, his granddaughter Agnes Cope
Cora, his granddaughter Frances Manley
Mr. Parker, a lawyer Leo Goodman
Mrs. Brown Frances Grismer
A Christmas Wish Helen Solan

Another feature of the afternoon was a beautifully decorated Christmas tree. The pupils were also honored by a visit from Santa Claus in the person of John Guimond and gifts were exchanged.

The Academy football team was entertained at a banquet December 19 by the mothers of the players. The Knights of Columbus banquet hall was fittingly decorated with emblems of the Christmas season. The forty boys representing the regular and junior teams enjoyed themselves and all agree that their mothers were the real sports of the evening. Coaches Mr. Guimond and Mr. Roache were present. Fathers Fagan and Thomas were the honored guests. Mr. William McFarland acted as toastmaster.

Father Fagan spoke on the place football has made for itself in the high schools and colleges, and of the place the Academy has made for itself among the high schools of the West. Mr. Guimond spoke on "Sportsmanship."

At the end of the banquet, Coach Guimond was presented with a handsome traveling bag by the football team.

CATHOLIC WOMAN'S LEAGUE

The Catholic Woman's League held a social meeting, Monday, November 18, at the rectory. Mrs. C. F. Spain won honors at bridge, and Mrs. H. J. Rogers in pinochle.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. J. P. Zilka, Mrs. E. F. McMahon and Mrs. T. R. Gerdes.

Mrs. J. E. McDonell was hostess chairman at a very successful card party given by the Catholic Woman's League November 14th, at the K. C. hall. Forty-three tables of cards were played, prizes being awarded to Mrs. Harold Wilson and N. W. Lommel for bridge, and to Clarence Raboin and Mrs. Johnson for pinochle. Refreshments were served.

A short business meeting was held at the rectory, December 2, at which time it was decided that the boys' and girls' committee of the League would act as hostesses at a banquet to honor the senior and junior football teams of I. H. M. Academy.
