THE ST. THOMAS' CHURCH, COEUR D'ALENE

"In vain you will build churches, give missions, found schools—all your works, all your efforts will be in vain—if you are not able to wield the defensive and offensive weapon of a loyal and sincere Catholic press."—POPE PIUS X.

"The same motive which you have to eliminate DANGEROUS publications should prompt you to exercise your zeal in the diffusion of SOUND literature."—CARDINAL GIBBONS.

PARISH NOTES

The Redemptorist Fathers are deeply grateful to the ladies and the parishioners who made the Get-Acquainted party such a decided success. St. Thomas always goes over the top.

During the month of August two Novenas will be held; one in preparation for the Feast of the Assumption, August 15; the other in preparation for the Feast of the Nativity of Our Blessed Lady. The first begins August 6, the latter August 30. The Novena prayers will be recited after the 6:30 o'clock Mass. We should endeavor to go to Mass and Holy Communion every day during these Novenas. The general intention will be for the unemployed and sick of the parish.

August 14 is a day of fast and abstinence. August 15 is a Holy Day of Obligation. Masses, 6:00, 8:00 and 9:30 A. M.

BAPTISMS

Bernice Margaret Fitch, Barbara Ann Butler, Kathleen Eleanor McDonnell.

WEDDINGS

Ray Cargo and Elsie Mayhew, Albert Anderson and Laura E. Moyer.

R. I. P.

Peter Goezzer, Barbara Rutten, Maria Schoeller.

TUESDAY DEVOTIONS

Throughout the year, devotions in honor of Our Mother of Perpetual Help are held every Tuesday at 3:00 and 7:30 P.M. Confessions are heard after each service.

THE BUSINESS SIDE

The present-day customs of church support are time honored. The Church exists solely by the contributions of its people. This has been so since the beginning. St. Paul used methods very similar to ours of today. There is frequent mention of this. We may not like the methods. But we must face the facts. Contributions formed always the chief support of religion and the church must be supported by those it serves.

A JOURNEY

Last year two Maryknoll missionaries, Father John Tierney, of New York City, and Father Francis MacRae, of Wakefield, Mass., now at work in South China, set out to bring Easter to a group of new converts. Father Tierney describes as follows the return journey:

"The sun that had so kindly favored us on the way up deserted us on the return trip, the clouds gathered, and down came one of China's spring rains, which lasted all day.

"Before long Father MacRae's chair coolies began to show signs of distress, for carrying 200 pounds in the rain along slippery rice paths, with chair poles sinking into bare shoulders, soon wears out human endurance. Father Mack, having formerly been one of Uncle Sam's heroes who in rain or shine bring letters to their destination, was touched by the appearance of his struggling coolies, so he got out and walked.

"While I did not actually see Father Mack
