QUEEN LINDA LARSEN REIGNS AT CINDERELLA JUNIOR PROM

The Cinderella Ball was held April 17, in the L.V. Brown Gymnasium. The theme of the Prom was "I Could Have Danced All Night." The hall was decorated to look like a castle room. Columns, shields, and the throne were in the royal colors of gold, purple, and red.

Page boys Bob Delyea and Jim Russell announced each junior couple who entered the hall.

The table centerpieces were miniature crowns of red and gold. A gold carriage on the white napkins and red dance cards were made with the help of Sister Philip. Punch and cookies were served by the freshmen girls.

Queen Linda Larsen, escorted by Tom Neeser, reigned over the evening. She was crowned by Tom with white carnations.

The music was furnished by the Skylarks from Gonzaga University in Spokane.

LAUREL WINS ALL-STATE AWARD AT MOSCOW PRESS CONFERENCE

Members of the I.H.M. Academy Press Club were present for the 18th Annual University of Idaho Journalism Conference, March 20, 21, at Moscow, Idaho.

The Laurel was entered in competition with other high school papers of Idaho and came out an All-State winner.

The young journalists attended sessions on sports writing, feature writing, yearbooks and techniques for mimeographing.

The Sports Clinic was of special interest because it had as its speaker Bob Maker, Sports Editor of the Coeur d'Alene Press. The yearbook conferences were also well attended by Academy students. One of the more relaxing sessions was the motion picture "Year of Destiny," a film on the news highlights of 1963.

In the afternoon, skilled students were given a chance to prove their writing ability in the news and sports writing contests.

A banquet at 5:30 p.m. brought to a close an enjoyable and informative day for the students.

BOYS STATERS ARE ANNOUNCED BY PRINCIPAL

Boys State delegates from I.H.M. Academy were announced by Sister Avelina, Principal. They are Gary O'Connell and Jay Snyder.

The boys were selected by members of the faculty for their qualities of leadership, cooperation, and scholastic achievement.

Sponsors for the Academy students are the Knights of Columbus and the American Legion Post.

The boys will depart for Boise the first week of June. While at the capital, the delegates will have the opportunity of running their own representative form of government for one week.

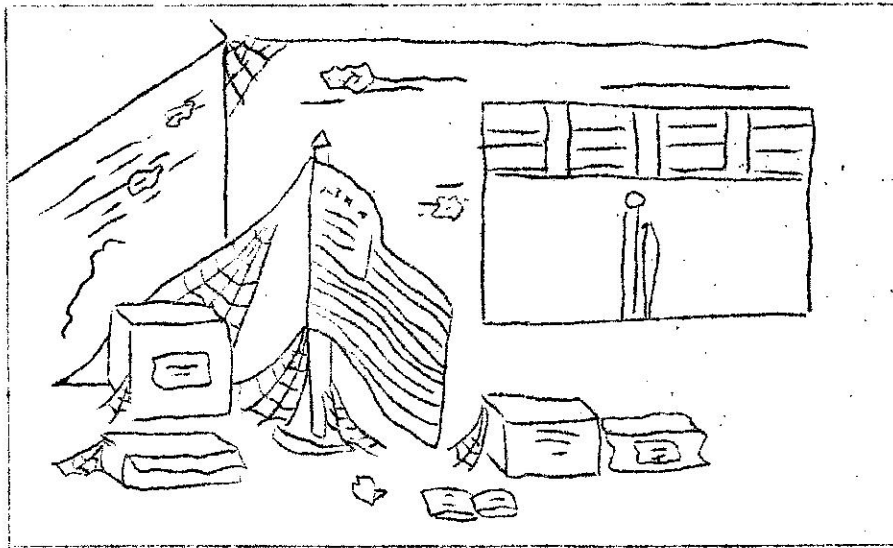

The alternates are Phil Rassier and Doug Landfried.

GONZAGA BAND GIVES CONCERT

The I.H.M. Academy was recently honored with a concert by the Gonzaga band conducted by Jon Nicholson. An outstanding performance was given by the band which included such melodies as Holiday for Trombones and Guadalcanal March from "Victory at Sea."

Highlighted during the performance were two gifted soloists: Don Sickler played the trumpeter selections "La Virgin de la Macarena" and "Trumpeters Lullaby." Laurie Gaskill a soprano, and a sophomore music major at Gonzaga U sang Ombra Mai Fu and Alleluja.

LET'S ASSUME OUR DUTY RAISE THE FLAG HIGH.

BX

Your flag and my flag
And how it flies to-day:
In your land and my land
And half a world away!
Rose-red and blood-red
The stripes forever gleam;
Snow-white and soul-white
The good forefathers' dream;

Sky-blue and true-blue with stars to gleam aright--
The glorified guidon of the day; a shelter through the night.

Wilbur D. Nesbit

This is just one of the poems dedicated to the American flag. As the verse points out, the flag should fly in our land in front of post offices, city halls, court houses, public schools and parochial schools alike. It should be there to remind all what America stands for. Raised high before the school buildings it should tell all peoples that the students within are learning the American way of life, learning to be future leaders of the free world.

At the Academy we have a flag in every classroom along side the crucifix, thus getting the blessing of God and our country on our studies. This is indeed very patriotic and respectful to the flag. However there is one aspect of our patriotism which is lacking. The flagpole protruding over the roof of the I.H.M. is hardly ever called upon to do what it was erected for, displaying the flag.

We feel that the students should assume the responsibility of displaying the flag every day. By doing so we will be doing more fully what our state in life allows us to do for our country. Besides showing how much we love our country, we will be showing the world that Catholics are true Americans.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT TO THE CRONICLE

The Torch Is Passed, a book which memorializes the death of President John F. Kennedy, has been presented to our school library by the Spokane Daily Chronicle for the use of our students.

It has been presented to all Inland Empire public and private schools without charge.

This book contains over 80 photographs and has 100 pages of information describing all of the events that went together to make up a tragic chapter in American history at the death of John F. Kennedy.

This volume is a worthy addition to our library and provides excellent reading for all students.

MAC ARTHUR LOSES BATTLE; DEATH IS CONQUEROR

"Hoist the colors to their peak and let no enemy pull it down!" These words of General Douglas MacArthur best express his fighting spirit and determination to win. All through his life he exemplified this spirit and determination. He graduated from West Point at the age of nineteen at the head of his class. In World War I he was wounded twice and decorated thirteen times. In World War II he was made commander-in-chief of the Armed Forces in the Far East. Stationed on the Philippine Islands he held off the Japanese, with a small force which many authorities considered almost miraculous until rallied by President Roosevelt. On leaving he made his famous promise "I will return." Less than three years later he returned to drive the Japanese from the Filipino shores. Several months later, September 2, 1945, General MacArthur met aboard the U.S.S. Missouri in Tokyo harbor with Japanese delegates to sign the terms of Japan's surrender.

In his last battle, even the will and determination of MacArthur could not win. Death the conqueror of all men was the victor. We have seen the passing of a great man who lived, fought, and was ready to give his life for his country.

HOMEMAKERS STAGE

FASHION SHOW

"Masterpieces of Fashion" was the theme of the annual style show presented by the Homemaking Classes of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Academy, in the L.V. Brown Gymnasium, April 7. The golden-framed pictures came alive as the girls modeled their creations suitable for various seasons.

Following the style show, refreshments were served in the Activity Room to parents and friends of the Homemaking girls.

CONDOLENCE

The faculty, alumni, and students wish to express their sincere sympathy to Frank and Diane Ryman '63 on the death of their grandmother.

JAN SMITH WINS VFW CONTEST

Jan Smith's pen has inked another winner. Her essay on Foreign Students in America merited second place, $15, in a contest sponsored by the V.F.W. Women's Auxiliary.

In her essay Jan pointed out what foreigners have done for America. Foreign students at NIJC and Holy Names College were used as examples.

PLACES FILLED ON CHEER SQUADS

The vacant places left on the varsity and J.V. cheerleading squads were filled on March 23 by the election of Linda Larsen and Alberta Garrick with alternate Ann Watson for the Varsity.

The newly elected J.V. cheerleaders are Suzanne Koontz, Ann Kryger, Sharon Nachter, and Linda Kurdy alternate.

IHM STUDENT PLACES FIRST AT INLAND SCIENCE FAIR

The Inland Empire Science Fair held at Glover Junior High School, Spokane, April 9 and 10 attracted many young scientists from the area.

Catherine Palmer, a junior at I.H.M. Academy, won first prize in the 11th grade biological division. Michael Nutt, Dave Boller, Larry Jacobs, and Edward Dunn received honorable mention in the 10th grade biological division.

There was a full schedule both days for those participating in the fair. Registration was Thursday until noon. At 1:15 p. m. two groups were assembled in the cafeteria for guided tours. The choice of tours was between the Kaiser Aluminum plant at Meade, or the Pathology department of Sacred Heart Hospital. Both groups were transported by chartered bus.

Friday morning several seminars took place at Glover for the young scientists. In the afternoon pictures were taken of award winners. A banquet sponsored by the Carnation Co.; began at 5:15 for the 60 winners. The same evening was "Young Scientists Night." Award winners explained their projects.

GROSS EXAGGERATIONS ...

Marilyn Gross

Did you know--that Fabian was a bean grower?? Neither did I until I looked it up and found that the name "Fabian" means bean grower (which isn't much better than "Fabiola," the feminine equivalent, which means "bean!") I wonder how many people know what their name really means, and if their parents knew when they named them? As you read this remember all of these names came from the Bible. They are all Christian names.

For instance, we have a long line involving animals. Adolf means noble wolf--noble even! Bernard means bold as a bear, and Ursula--little bear. We also have several lions--including Leo, Leon, Leonard, and even Leander--who is a lion-man! If you happen to know anyone named Hulda, it means weasel!

Here are a few more things I didn't know: Lolita is sorrowful; Barbara is a stranger; Cleopatra is of a famous father(?); Amabel is lovable and so is Mungo; Burton is a bright friend; Dorcas is a gazelle; Elfreda is, of all the evil things, an elf-threatener; Roy is red and Russell is redder (how come?); Thomas is a twin; Elaise is a babbler; Luke is light; Don is a dark stranger; Debra is a bee; and Alvin is beloved by all!

So much for fun. There are also many names that have beautiful meanings, e.g. John means God has mercy; Ann--grace; Diana--divine; Catherine--pure; Susannily; Stephen--crowned; Beatrice--joy-bringer; David--beloved; Michael--who is like God; Peter--rock; and so on.

As my list is still very incomplete, here are a few more familiar names around the Academy: Mary--rebellion; Harold--strong warrior; Roland--wide--famed; William--strong helmet; Philip--horse lover; Clara--illustrious; Jill--downy; Judy--praised; Lucile--light; Joseph--increase; and Frank--free.

And guess what?--even Herman and Hilda have special meanings to their names--even if they do claim to be, u, canines. Herman is a soldier and Hilda is a battle-maid. Now how's that for 2getherness?

SODALITY MEET TO BE SPONSORED BY GONZAGA PREP

Saturday, April 25, the members of the Sodality of Mary from the IHM Academy will attend a Sodality Conference, held at Gonzaga Prep, Spokane. This is the first such conference to be held in the Northwest. In Attendance will be Sodality groups from Idaho, Washington, and Montana.

The object of the conference is to help in the forming and managing of a Sodality, and the promoting of devotion to the Blessed Virgin.

ACADEMY SPORTS

PANTHER TRACKS

Mike Ransom

Baseball, threatened by a meager turnout, has bounced back. Now, with enough members for conference play, the team has a good season to look forward to.

Coach Don Pischner's lineup looks like this: John Miller, Don Smith, or Dennis Treichel on the mound, Tim Rarick or Mark Dean on first base, Jim Rarick or Mike Susalla on second, and Skip Sand on third. Jay Snyder and Fred Schaffner vie for left field. Jim Nutt and James Welch for center, and Bob McFarland and Steve Bowser for right. Dave Boller or Larry Lenz will play short.

According to managers Bob MacDonald, Steve Dolan, and Don Erickson, Jim Yeager and Larry Jacobs classify as catchers.

Hitting prospects for 1964 are John Miller, Jay Snyder, Tim Rarick, Jim Rarick, Dave Boller, Skip Sand, and Larry Jacobs. With that slugging staff, the Panthers should come out ahead this season.

The IHM Panther golf team turned out April 8 with eight players getting off the first tee. The boys who will represent the Academy at matches around the Inland Empire will be Jim Hofmeister, Gary O'Connell, Gary Miles, Bob Huetter, John Wakefield, Tom Kurdy, John Hartnett, Bill McFarland, and Matt Johnston.

Golf coach Chuck Harding has had wonderful success lining up four- and six-man team matches with other Empire teams. The first match of the season was April 18 with North Central of Spokane on the Coeur d'Alene public golf course. A complete-to-date schedule is found else where on this page. Besides those on the schedule, matches are being arranged with the CHS team, and rematches are on the board with Gonzaga and North Central.

Due to the efforts of Mr. Harding, I'm sure, the Panthers have drawn an invitation to the Inland Empire High School Golf Tournament at Spokane's Indian Canyon Course, May 11. Matches may be arranged with some of the others in Spokane--LC, Shadle, WV--and the Empire--Wallace, Lewiston, and Sandpoint. In all, there are about ten matches this season--considerable competition for the Academy's first golf team.

Jest around the course: I hear that John Hartnett shoots in the 60's and 70's, but if it's any colder he doesn't play. Tom Kurdy believes that a straight line is the shortest distance between two points, but he forgot about the trees in the woods around the fairways. It may be that he is such a good player that he prefers the rough to the straight-of-ways.

A match on Friday, April 24, will see the Panthers in action against Roger's Pirates on the home links.

IHM GOLF TEAM LOSES OPENER

The newly-formed Panther golf team was topped in its opening match, 6½ to 5½, by the Central Valley Bears on the Liberty Lake course. Point-makers for the Academy were: Bob Huetter, 2; John Wakefield, 1½; Bill McFarland, 1; Jim Hofmeister, 1.

In a match the next day with North Central, the Panthers were again downed 11-1. Bill McFarland made the lone point.

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

SENIORS IN RETROSPECT

Every class has its oddities and the seniors are no exception. Out of 32 members of the class only 8 are natives of Coeur d'Alene. However sixteen were born in Idaho. The Seniors represent seven other states of the union. Not only is the United States well represented but also three foreign countries, Germany, Mary Kiernan, France, Rol-lie Betit, and Canada, Art Rozeck.

Their birthdays are scattered throughout the year with the exception of June, the greatest number is six in January.

Fifteen are the oldest in the family and eight are the youngest. There is a Timothy Michael and a Michael Timothy. Seventeen have been together since first grade. Sally Cary who graduated from eighth grade with the class, has returned to the Academy for her senior year.

Sixteen seniors wear glasses and seven are left handed.

The following have parents who are alumni of the Academy:

Tim Rarick, both Mother and Father, Mike Garron, Mother, Matt Johnston, Mother, and Kathy Kryger, Mother.

Twenty-six of the thirty-two seniors plan on furthering their education by going to college next year.

Twenty-five have been together since their freshman year.

Those that play musical instruments are John Jaegar, Marge McCormick, Pam Peters, Maureen McDonnell, Theresa Smith, and Kathy Kryger.

Despite all these peculiarities the class of '64 shows great potential for the future.

GUIDANCE DAY HELD AT NIJC

The Senior Class of "64" recently took a day off from the thundering halls of I.H.M. and visited the serene, tranquility of the North Idaho Junior College. The J.C. was sponsoring a day-long program to introduce students to their school, to show them the ways of college and to relate to them their educational and social standards.

High school seniors from all the surrounding areas attended the sessions and lectures. A luncheon held in the gymnasium was the social event of the day.

T. RARICK MERITS SCHOLARSHIP TO WASHINGTON U.

Timothy Rarick, a senior at I.H.M. Academy, was awarded a football scholarship to the University of Washington.

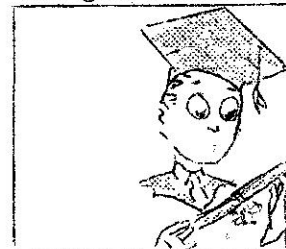

Mr. Laurie Niemi, a representative from the University, contacted Tim and presented him with the offer.

The scholarship includes room, board and tuition for one year and is renewable.

TEA HONORS SENIOR GIRLS

A tea, given for graduating senior girls of Coeur d'Alene and their mothers, was held at the Washington Water Power Auditorium on Friday, April 13.

A short talk on the value of higher education in general, and especially about the need of home economists in the modern world was given. Refreshments were then served to the girls and their mothers.

AWARDS BANQUET HONORS IHM CAGE TEAM

The Desert Hotel was the scene of an awards banquet in honor of the 1964 Panther cage team, April 1. The banquet was sponsored by the IHM Academy Boosters and was a huge success.

Coaches Jack Mitchell and Gene Miller and Chuck Harding were the honored guests. The varsity team was accompanied by the fathers of the boys.

Coach Miller introduced each player and presented him his award with a few remarks about last season and what to look for next year. The coaches were presented with special gifts on behalf of the boosters. The team presented the coaches with men's jewelry sets on behalf of the team members.

SISTERS ATTEND LATIN CONFERENCE

Sister Avellina and Sister Alphonsa represented IHM Academy at the fifty-second annual Latin conference held at Gonzaga University, Spokane, on April 11.

The Very Rev. John P. Leary, President of Gonzaga welcomed all present.

Discussions were held on the great Latin epics and a film strip shown on "The Ostracism of Hyperbolos."

A panel discussion on the Iliad and Aeneid was conducted by six Tacoma High School students.

The conference concluded with the election of new officers.

for a job so excellently done.

Bob Maker, Sports Editor for the Coeur d'Alene Press, wound up the session with a special talk on the importance of the relationship between father and son and how much they can learn. He commented on how the team had improved in the past year as a basketball team and as gentlemen.

SENIORS TAKE TOP PRIZES IN POETRY CONTEST

Winners in the Catholic Daughter Poetry Contest sponsored by Court Our Lady of the Lake, No. 1147 were announced by Mrs. James Eagan, Fernan Lake.

Senior girls took all three prizes in Division IV. Maureen McDonell was first, Mary Kiernan, second, and Pamela Peters third.

Three freshmen placed in Division III: James Hofmeister first, Mark Ballantyne second, and Janice Smith third.

The winning poems have been entered in the state contest.

PRIZE WINNING POEM HUMILITY

Sunshine crept in through tiny windows in a simple room,
A flutter of wings was heard above the silence---
And then more silence,

until

Fearful words were spoken, fearful yet majestic,
A heart could be heard beating in the silence.
A tingle was felt in a bosom...

and then

Humble words, not fearful as before, were whispered.
"Behold the handmaid of the Lord..."

WHAT IS IT?

What would you do if someone gave you a Jan'nock for your birthday? When the above question was asked around school these were some of the replies:

Wayne Tyrell- I'd wrap it around my finger and wear it as a reminder.

Mike Susalla- I'd put it in my pocket and save it.

Sheila Hare- I'd wear it.

Jane Lauf- It would depend on the color.

Barb Whiteley- I'd tell them to take it back.

Carol Peplinski- I'd chew it.

Ann Matson- I'd be grateful forever.

Ann Sonnichsen- I'd kill it before it spread.

Bea Betit- I'd sit on it.

Linda Roberts- I'd blow it up and put it on my wall.

John Hartnett- I'd drive it.

John Miller- I'd put it in my locker and forget about it.

John Jaeger- I'd give it to Sister Avellina.

Don Anderson- I'd use it as a salad dressing.

Phil Rassier- I'd have it for lunch.

Jan'nock is Leavened oatmeal bread.

SPEECH TEACHER IS RECUPERATING FROM ILLNESS

Mr. Robert Hatch, the Academy speech teacher was taken ill during the Easter vacation. He spent about a week in Sacred Heart Hospital and is now recuperating in Spokane.

Since Mr. Hatch will not be able to return to finish the term, Mrs. Kathleen Akerhielm has taken over the class. She is a former graduate of Gonzaga University.

KELLOGG PUPILS VISIT ACADEMY

Pupils, from St. Rita's grade school Kellogg visited the Academy Tuesday, April 7. These eighth grade students are interested in coming to the Academy next year.

The Homemaking class presented a fashion show for the visitors. The Glee Club also sang a selection of songs.

The Homemaking class then hosted the girls and chaperones to refreshments.

REPORTS ISSUED FRESHMEN LEAD HONOR LIST

At the end of the fifth six weeks marking period, following students ranked in the highest percent of their respective classes.

Seniors: Mary Kiernan, Kathryn Dryger, Tim Rarick, and Diane Wachter all received second honors.

Juniors: Jay Snyder and Janice McGregor merited high honors, and Linda Walter, Marilyn Gross, and Cathryn Andrews received second honors.

Sophomores: Valerie McRill, Robin Hultner, and Sharon Wachter achieved high honors. Second honors went to Michael Harrington, John Hartnett, and John Wakefield.

Freshmen: Freshmen led the school with eight students receiving top honors: James Hofmeister, Robert McFarland, Phyllis Bauman, Mark Ballantyne, Janice Smith, Cynthia Carlson, Leslie Fraijo, and Margaret Riplinger. Second honors were merited by Diane Chase and Patricia Ransom.

ONLY FOR PEOPLE...

It takes a smart fast thinking person to really hold a good conversation of double talk. He has to be careful to keep separate what he is saying from what he is thinking. But to do a nice job of double talking now and then, say once every day, it just takes ordinary people like yourselves. So . . . Read on and find out how.

"Really Marsha that orange dress looks good on you, it has class."

(I'll wear sunglasses the next time she wears it.)

"I hear you like to ski."

(You should with your number 10's.)

"Your speech was very interesting."

(Easy to sleep to.)

"Honest Mom, this raspberry pie is superb."

(Like spinach and liver it is!)

"Yes Mother I cleaned my room."

(Enough of it to set the waste basket down anyway.)

"I cleaned my locker like you asked, Sister."

(Had to find my picture of Jackie Gleason.)

"I studied the required two hours last night."

(Watching the late show.)

"Oh how nice to see you."

(Where's the two dollars you borrowed a month ago?)

"We'll be real sorry to see your class leave."

(Wow! only five more weeks.)

"I wish your class could stay here always."

(Like I want a hole in my head.)

"Bet you are glad you're finished with school."

(Took you long enough, never thought you'd make it.)

"Jan, your column is just great."

(Like Mom's raspberry pie it was.)
