MAGAZINE DRIVE LAUNCHED; PROCEEDS GO TO LIBRARY

Do you enjoy the benefits of a well-equipped library? If you do this article may be of interest to you.

It is time for us, as members of the Academy, to lend a helping hand. Our library needs our help to invest in more and better equipment and books for the students. How can we do this? By supporting the magazine drive.

The motto this year is "Wagging Tails Bring On Sales." So if we are to follow this motto we must act like frisky pups, not like a dog who has just about seen his last day.

In order to do this we must not wait till the end of the drive. We must get out right away before everyone else gets there.

Our goal this year is $900. Each student's quota is $6. If each one meets his quota, we will be far over this amount.

So don't be a dying dog, get out and work for your sales like a new, frisky pup, and our goal will be reached.

ACADEMY SENIOR PLACES SECOND IN HIRE THE HANDICAPPED CONTEST

At the VFW banquet held Saturday, February 20, Janice McGregor, IHM senior, was awarded second place in the local Hire the Handicapped essay contest.

In a letter received by Sister M. Rosina, Academy English teacher, from the local Mayor's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped and Older Workers, Mayor Marc H. Souther congratulated Janice and also Sharon Wachter and Darrell Larsen who merited honorable mention. All three essays have been sent to Boise to compete in state competition.

Mayor Souther thanked Sister Rosina and the Academy for participating in the contest.

Sister Mary Kevin Former Academy Principal Dies

Sister Mary Kevin, IHM, died Saturday, February 13, in Scranton, Pennsylvania. Her death followed a long illness. Funeral services were held on the following Monday.

Sister Mary Kevin was stationed in Coeur d'Alene from 1921 to 1935, and again, from 1948 to 1954. Here she taught high school students, including the parents of many present Academy students. Previously she had been at Saint Joseph's in Spokane.

Moscow Scientist Visits IHM Academy

Mr. Delmar Boyer, head of the math department at the University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho, recently conducted math classes at IHM Academy.

Mr. Boyer spoke to the math students on number systems, polyhedrons, and prime numbers. He also explained the job of a mathematician--to take a math statement, and prove if the theorem is true.

Mr. Boyer received his doctorate at the University of Kansas in 1955.

PARENTS ATTEND CLASSES AT IHM

Parents and friends of students at IHM Academy were given an opportunity to visit classes and observe the functionings of a regular school day on Thursday, February 18.

Beginning their tour at about 9:15 a.m., the visitors attended any classes which they wished to observe. The program ended at 2:45 p.m. after the parents had had the chance to relive a day as students.

The Sisters in sponsoring "Open House" truly gave the parents an opportunity to witness how their children are instructed and how they respond to education.

World Mourns Churchill

Sir Winston Churchill, who led Great Britain in her finest hour, died Sunday morning, January 24.

The 90-year old statesman and warrior passed away peacefully shortly after 8 a.m. at his London home.

Sir Winston Churchill--statesman, orator, author, painter--will be remembered as the man who inspired the British to fight when the clouds of war were darkest.

In World War II Churchill reached the peak of his career in inspiring Britain to its "finest hour." With British and French armies being pressed back by Hitler's army, he became prime minister on May 10, 1940 with a declaration that he had nothing to offer but "blood, toil, tears, and sweat."

Churchill's voice and his V--for--victory sign helped give Britons and their allies the resolve to make true his assurance, "We shall never surrender."

John F. Kennedy, in welcoming him to honorary U.S. citizenship, called Churchill "the most honorable man to walk the stage of human history in the time in which we live."

Churchill went down fighting with the same indomitable courage that marked a career spanning some of Britain's most glorious and most heart-rendering years.

At the very end Churchill showed an amazing physical stamina, a stamina that has survived some 14 major illnesses since he was seven.

No other commoner in the long, rich history of Britain has been accorded the high honors that have been bestowed on Mr. Churchill. The Queen's presence at his funeral is an honor that was not even given to the Duke of Wellington, the conqueror of Napoleon.

Sir Winston Churchill is surely one of the most turbulent and colorful personalities of the era. A many sided genius, he was a great statesman, and indomitable champion of freedom, independence, and peace, and a unique world figure in the history of mankind.

Two Academy Boys Cop Elks Award

Two Academy boys, Jay Snyder and Gary O'Connell recently won first and second place, respectively, in the Elks Leadership Contest.

The award is based on leadership qualities which young people have shown throughout their high school years. The contest is judged on a booklet entered by the contestants.

Included in the booklet were awards, newspaper clippings, certificates and honor cards which they had received, contests which they had won, offices which they held and various letters of recommendation.

Jay's booklet will be sent to the state contest.

Jay wishes to attend the US Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland. He is one of six finalists from Idaho for one vacancy at the Academy.

Sodality To Buy Statue Of Mary

The Sodality of Mary of the Academy is presently engaged in a fund raising project. The proceeds will be used to purchase a new statue of Our Blessed Lady for use in the high school. The condition of our present statue suggested this project.

A between-period goody sale has met with full approval and co-operation of the students.

The Sodality announces that they have reached well over half their goal of $75.

Fulbright Scholar Visits U.S. Schools

In comparing schools of his native Belgium with those of the United States, Father Edward Horemans said the big difference was the social freedom of American teenagers. In Belgium things are taken more seriously and there is no emphasis placed on extra-curricular activities. Another thing he noticed was the marked separation of Church and State. Since Belgium is predominantly Catholic both public and private schools are tax supported. One very striking comment he made was that there are very few studying for the priesthood or religious life in Belgium.

Father Horemans is in the United States on a Fulbright scholarship, one of 2250 teachers from more than 70 foreign countries.

He began his six months of study in Washington, D. C., and from there travelled through Idaho, Utah, and Wyoming. While staying in America, he has lived in private homes, thus getting an even broader scope of the country.

Father sat in on the French and English classes and was impressed by the high quality of teaching at the Academy.

CONDOLENCE

The faculty, Alumni and students extend sympathy to the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary on the death of Sister Mary Kevin, IHM; to Mother Mary William, IHM on the death of her brother.

ONLY FOR PEOPLE

Jan Karst

Sometimes I think students don't really appreciate their teachers. They have to look at the same faces day in and day out. Teach the same thing year in and year out. Listen to the same old excuses that she has heard a hundred times. She could probably tell you your excuse before you even make it up. Some of the things I think teachers get tired of hearing are:

"I did it, I know. I just can't remember what I did with it--Let me think. . . ."

"What candy Sister? I didn't have anything in my mouth."

"Sister, kin I go out to my locker?"

"I forgot!"

"Was that due today?"

"My mother overslept."

"I wasn't talking."

"I know the answer, I just forgot it."

"I don't understand."

"Do we get out early today? Why?"

"When did you assign that?"

"A surprise quiz? Oh no, Sister, please."

"Sister, you know that thing that was on your desk, day before yesterday? Do you still have it?"

Let's make this "Be kind to Teacher Week" and if we have to offer an excuse at least make it different.

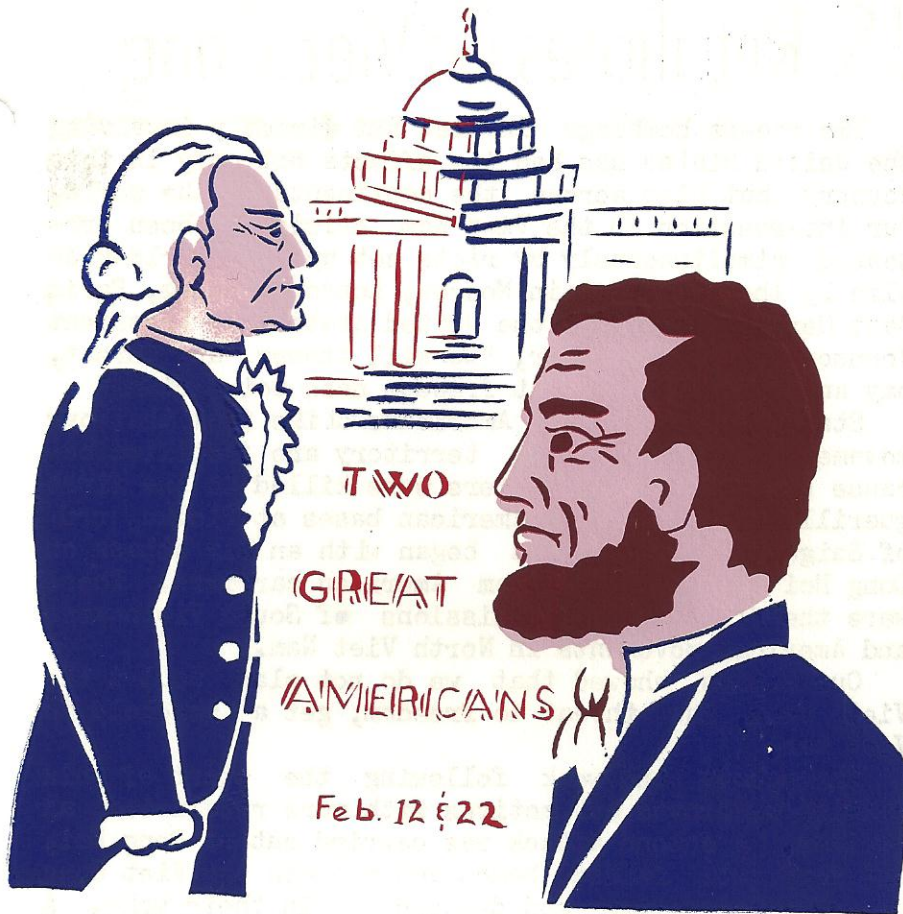

Skylarks Play For Senior Ball

A blue and white replica of the Taj Mahal, bordered on each side by a white minaret, was the highlight of the decorations carrying out the theme of the Senior Ball--"Scheharazade."

Music was provided by "Thy Skylarks" from Gonzaga U. During intermission, Sister Beatrice and Mr. Gene Boyle were given gifts from the seniors.

SENIORS SPORT NAME CARDS

Senior name cards have been circulating throughout the school for the past week. It gives the "Big Kids" a thrill to have the under-classmen asking for a piece of paper with their name on it, and the under-classmen get just as much fun out of asking. (What better way to decorate a scrapbook!)

All Men Are Created Equal

Regardless Of Color Or Creed

Underneath both skins the blood runs the same color, red. Both black and white hands motion and applaud at the overthrow by the pitcher to third base. Two races work the same computers, play the same game of marbles, and thrill to see the same "Old Glory" furling in the breeze. The same tears well up in the eyes at the gift of a small child. Mountains, baby birds, stars and rippling streams are enjoyed and loved by both. Negroes and whites both know the pressure of war, pain and tragedy.

With this inconsideration what could make the whites superior? The answer is nothing. This Lincoln knew. He was not just a man who wrote on the back of a shovel, who borrowed books, split rails, or told funny stories, he was a man who loved man. He knew the misery of his fellow man, and helped him, not stopping to ask his color. His final tribute to these people was his life.

Yet today while calling anything that is undesirable "nigger" we can say that we love and admire the friend of the Negro, Abraham Lincoln.

Washington Chosen To Head New Nation

After the War for American Independence, General Washington had retired to his beloved Mount Vernon, sure that his country's need for him was over, content to take up his life as a gentleman farmer again.

The war was over; the hard-fought-for peace had been won. All the misery was behind the Americans now, to become a part of their new history. Now another war was to be fought--a war of tempers and compromises; of bitterness and reconciliation; of hot emotions and cold reason. The new nation had independence, but keeping it was another matter entirely.

Delegates from the thirteen states met to decide what kind of government was needed by the new nation. They fought and argued bitterly about everything from the location of the capital city to the number of representatives to be in Congress. On one thing only were they in agreement -- they wanted a president, and they wanted George Washington to be that president.

These men realized that unity among the states was badly needed if the nation was to grow strong, and they knew that George Washington was the only man who could bring that unity.

George Washington became our first president, and truly earned the title, "Father of His Country."

IHM HOMEMAKER SCORES HIGH

Cathryn J. Andrews has been named IHM Academy's 1965 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. She scored highest in a written homemaking examination taken by the senior girls Dec. 1, and is now eligible for state and national honors.

Seniors taking second and third place were Linda Roberts--superior and Ann Matson--excellent.

Jesuit Lectures IHM Assembly

Father D. Lyons, S.J., Gonzaga University, one of the instructors on the University of the Seven Seas, spoke to the Academy students of the benefits of the university.

Father Lyons said that the school provides a cultural background and helps improve interest in foreign affairs.

He showed slides of the various places they visited, such as the Vatican, South Viet Nam, Portugal, and Hawaii.

JUNIORS HOLD VALENTINE HOP

The junior class held a Valentine's Dance, Feb. 13, after the Mullan game. The purpose was to raise money for their junior prom. They also gave money to the student council for the purpose of obtaining records for the school.

U.S. Retaliates On Viet Cong

The recent bombings in Viet Nam directly involving the United States has had its effects not only in this country but also across the continents of the world. Our intervention in the Viet Nam crisis has been protested simultaneously by riots set up as a world-wide plan by the Communists in Moscow, London, Peking, Paris, East Germany, and even the United States. As President Johnson stated, however, "We will answer any threat, pay any price to see that freedom does not perish."

Statesmen and common Americans alike feel that our movements into Viet Cong territory are justified because eight American soldiers were killed in the first guerilla air attacks on American bases at Pleiku, north of Saigon. Our reprisals began with an air attack on Dong Hoi by 49 planes from American carriers. These were the first actual admissions of South Vietnamese and American movements in North Viet Nam.

Our action showed that we do not plan to let the Viet Cong, the threat to freedom, get a handhold in Viet Nam.

Throughout the week following the start of this crisis, we proved our motives with more retaliatory air strikes. A second attack was carried out on Dong Hoi, and Navy jets rained bombs and rockets on Viet Cong bases, leaving fire and destruction in their wake. A blasting of our bases at Tuy Hoa, Binh Dinh, and a billet at Qui Nhon leaving about 48 Americans dead touched off a 150 plane attack on strategic Cong bases by American and South Vietnamese planes.

Since the air attacks and ground ambushes were becoming more frequent and wide spread, President Johnson ordered all American dependents out of South Viet Nam. This was safely completed in seven days.

Behind these air attacks and the coinciding visit of Russian Premier Alexei N. Kosygin can be seen a threatening show of Communistic power with the feared support of Russia and Red China. Men abroad have miscalculated the strength of the American peoples. The aggression of the Viet Cong, if continued, will urge America to inflict upon the Viet Cong and her supporters crippling damage until freedom and peace in Asia is assured.

Honorable mentions were merited by Robert McFarland and Janice McGregor in the senior division and Wesley Romans in the junior division.

This award makes Cathy Andrews a three-time winner for the month of February. She was named Future Homemaker of America in the Betty Crocker Contest and placed first in the local Voice of Democracy Contest.

Janice McGregor won second place in the Hire the Handicapped Essay contest.

DEE ANDROS LEAVES FOR OREGON STATE

Dee Andros, well-known U of I football coach, has taken the reigns of the Oregon State grid machine.

Andros, a tough but personable 40 year old former Marine sergeant and Vandal coach, has repeatedly devoted his time and energy to the Academy by speaking at assemblies held in honor of the Panthers. At these assemblies Andros expressed the value of athletics and praised the IHM football team for the fine work it was doing.

At a banquet held in his honor, Andros said he was leaving many good friends in Idaho with mixed emotions.

The winner of the state contest will be sent to Washington, D. C. for final judging in the Nationals.

SPORTS ACADEMY

PANTHER TRACKS

Mike Ransom

The all-Idaho Catholic Championship playoff here on February 25, 26, 27, will pit the three top teams in the state against each other, or should I say, the two top teams against the best? No matter how it is said, IHM will end its season with a 13-7 record, substantially better than last year's 8-10 finish and 1963's 7-13.

We hope you have noticed the spirit the Panthers sometimes show when they are losing--spirit often missing when we slaughter someone. Several times the team has closed a gap by ten or twelve points while I was out in the hall matching dimes with Sister Mariel's Big Blue Bandit for a bottle of pop. Usually when we are ahead, we tend to stay there by increasing margins.

Just before the Tournament, the Junior Varsity stands 12-3. Prospects were never better for the Varsity team next year with the promising JV's ready to fill the ranks.

Father Lassell has sent his regrets that he is no longer making any money on the Panther games, but they do have horses in California. Father may find the horses more exciting, but he at least got rich here.

After four years of having Lakeland victories accepted as a matter of course, the Academy has finally topped the Hawks, twice no less! Our first revenge, especially sweet after the Christmas Tournament, came when we beat them on our own court 70-44, and again last Friday on their court 57-47. I heard several reports of "rejoicing" at our victories, even from Post Falls. Post Falls beat Mullan, too, just a few weeks ago. Maybe we should play Post Falls. Back to Lakeland, remember what Coach Boyle said at the pep rally on Friday? Tom Kane (Lakeland football coach) said the Hawks were "out to get us." Maybe we were "in" playing the game while they were "out" looking for us.

Panthers Claw Tigers 51-49

The highly rated Mullan Tigers were beaten on their home court by an upstart band of Panthers by the score of 51-49. From the start, the Tigers led but the Panthers stayed close, behind only 26-21 at halftime.

In the second half, both teams played evenly until Academy finally tied the game with one minute to go.

Mullan tried to stall the game, but John Miller stole the ball and passed full court to John Hartnett who made the winning basket with three seconds left. Gary O'Connell was high man for IHM with 16 points.

IHM DOWNS HAWKS O'CONNELL SHINES

The Academy Panthers defeated Lakeland's Hawks 57-47 in their last regular season game.

IHM jumped off to a quick start and led 23-9 early in the first half with Miles, O'Connell, and Hartnett scoring well. The Panthers were without the services of Dennis Treichel who had received serious head, neck, and back injuries.

The Panthers kept the Hawks under pressure during the third quarter and had a 50-35 lead at the end of the period. The Panthers played a cold fourth quarter as the home team cut down the lead and stalled out the last three minutes.

Gary Miles had 18 and Gary O'Connell 13 points to lead the scoring.

IHM 65

KOOTENAI 69

Junior Varsity action left Kootenai behind 59-39.

IHM 70

LAKELAND 44

The Lakeland Hawks met the Panthers on the home court and got a sound whipping, 70-44. John Hartnett and Gary Miles led scoring with 17 and 16 points. The JV game also brought victory, 65-50.

IHM 70

PRIEST RIVER 41

Slow in starting, the Panthers quickly regained control and swamped Priest River Spartans 70-41 in the Spartan Gym. Dennis Treichel led Panther scoring with 17 points, followed by Gary Miles with 12 and Dave Boller 11.

IHM 41

ST. MARIES 54

St. Maries scored its second win over IHM after the Panthers got off to a good start to lead 24-19 at the half. Slipping to a tied score at the end of the third period, the Panthers finally succeeded.

IHM 88

CLARK FORK 90

High scoring by the Panthers did not ward off the Clark Fork Wampus Cats although IHM kept the score tied right up until the final buzzer. With four seconds of play, the Cats pulled ahead and won 90-88. Dennis Treichel, John Miller, Gary O'Connell, Dave Boller, and Wayne Tyrrell all hit in double figures with 19, 17, 15, 16, and 12 points respectively.

IHM 88

PLUMMER 66

To bring the season record to 9-4, the Panthers trounced the Plummer Pirates 88-66. John Miller led with 19 points followed by Jim Rarick and Gary Miles with 14 and 12 points.

IHM 51

ST. MARIES 55

A fast third quarter holding 23 Panther points and only 10 for the Lumberjacks failed to yield a Panther victory as St. Maries edged by 55-51.

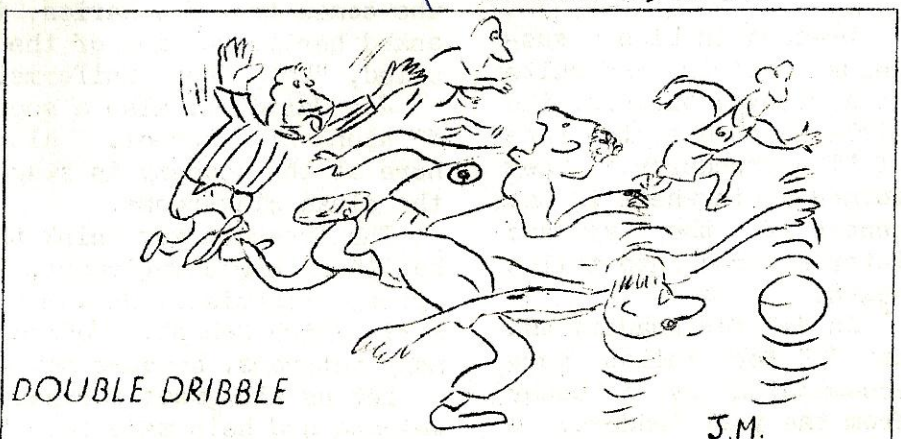

John Miller was high scorer with 14 points.

Oof! Ouch! Thud! Swish!--were sounds that resounded through the Brown Gym, Friday, February 12, as the Academy Squires took a win over the Knights of Columbus, 41-37.

With a 12 to 5 lead first quarter, the "Dads" looked like they would have smooth sailing the rest of the game. But in the second period the younger squires bench strength came out and caught the "oldsters" coughing and wheezing and outscored them 10 to 2. The buzzer buzzed and ended in a 15-14 Squire advantage at halftime.

At the sound of the bell both teams hit the mat...er the court.

The Knights with Mr. Tom (Stretch) Jacobsen rebounding and Mr. John (Deadeye) McHugh shooting 8 points, outscored their opponents 14 to 9. Then in the middle of the final period the Squires sent in reinforcements and the "oldsters" lost a biggun, "Deadeye McHugh" on fouls. Soon after the youngsters took the lead and emerged victorious, 41-37.

Former Graduates Talk On Vocations

Three sisters of the order of the Holy Name of Jesus and Mary visited IHM February 4. They were Sister Redempta Mary, the former Agnes Roche and 1960 graduate of IHM; Sister Miriam Roberts, sister of Suzanne and Christine Koontz, also a 1960 graduate of IHM; and Sister Mary Kathleen, cousin of the Koontz girls, and a 1960 graduate of Holy Names High School.

They spoke to all the girls concerning their vocations, describing the daily routine of a nun, including prayer, studies, and recreation. Afterwards, questions of the students were answered.

The sisters are in their Juniorate year of preparation, or fourth year of training at Fort Wright College, in Spokane, Washington.

DRILL TEAM MAKES FIRST APPEARANCE

After months of practice the IHM Drill Team made its first appearance in the Brown Gym, at half-time last February 13 during the Academy-Mullan game.

Dressed in blue suspender skirts and white long-sleeved blouses, the girls marched to the tune of "The Thunderer." They formed a pin wheel in the center of the gym and later entered into a line weave.

An "A" for Academy and an "M" for Mullan were accompanied by a cheer from the yell leaders.

Father Lassell Assumes New Duties In Fresno

Father Raymond Lassell, C.Ss.R., until recently stationed at St. Thomas Parish, is now working as a parish priest in St. Alphonsus Parish in Fresno, California. Replacing Father Lassell is Father William Brogley, who comes to Coeur d' Alene from Portland.

Also transferred from Coeur d' Alene were Fathers James Schuster and Victor Zabelle, missionaries. They have both been transferred to St. Mary's Parish in Whittier, California, where they will work as missionaries. Coming to St. Thomas as a missionary is Father Bernard Hopkins from Livermore, California. Father was stationed here several years ago as a parish priest.

Father Lassell came to Coeur d' Alene two and one-half years ago from Seattle, where he worked as a missionary. At St. Thomas he was the Assistant Pastor. Besides Seattle, he has worked in Great Falls, Montana and Whittier. His Fresno parish is the center of missionary activity among the Spanish, Italian, and Portuguese of California.

Father Brogley was ordained in 1941 and has since worked in the Livermore, California parish as Superior and also as Business Manager for the Redemptorist province.

NEW STUDENTS REGISTER BOY-GIRL RATIO ADJUSTED

The boy-girl ratio of the Academy has been adjusted somewhat with the advent of new students. Three boys and one girl are new on the scene.

The juniors find in their midst Gary Gustafson. Gary comes from Sarasota, Florida, where the temperature is always high. Consequently Gary greets the snow and sub-zero weather here rather coldly.

The sophomores hail two new faces. Barbara Marquette who comes from St. Maries, is fitting right in. When asked her impression of the Academy, she naturally replied, "Ugh, these uniforms!"

Joe Carneiro, also a sophomore, comes from Coeur d' Alene High School. Although the amount of homework here at the Academy is staggering for Joe, he does like the clean classrooms.

The freshmen may think that the Academy is strict, but their new counterpart, Francis Spiesman does not agree. Francis finds IHM a relaxing change from St. Maries High School. However, echoing the sentiment of many veterans, he does not care for the hall rules.

Let us all greet our new schoolmates with a warm welcome and help make them feel at home here.
