Classes Elect '68 Officers

The election of class officers was just another routine occurrence this year . . . except, of course, for the juniors. In a successful effort to while away invaluable class time, they managed on the first ballot to elect Joe Foredyce both president and vice-president. This amazing feat came about when the juniors dispensed with the usual method of voting for officers one at a time. Instead, they each voted for their own slate of officers, then tallied the votes. It took a good bit of discussion and some revoting to decide that Wally Matson should act as vice-president.

In the senior class election results were: Bob Blessing, president; Jim Dolan, vice-president; Theresa Roche, as secretary; Don Shannon, treasurer; Jeff Norton and Laura Gebhart, student council representatives.

Junior returns included: Joe Foredyce, president; Walter Matson, vice-president; Mel Koontz, secretary; Mimi Anderson, treasurer; Bob Riggs and Bob Weber, student council representatives.

Seniors, Juniors Agree On Prom

After several days of argument and a great number of class meetings, the junior and senior classes agreed to join forces for one big prom this year. It was also voted that the dance would definitely be held in the Brown gymnasium next spring, and no lower classmen would be allowed to attend.

3 Nuns Sent To Pennsylvania

Sister M. Nadine, former principal at IHM, has been elected assistant mother superior of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Sisters, and is now stationed at Marywood Convent, Scranton, Pa.

Also transferred were Sisters Beatrice and Rosina, who taught science and English respectively while stationed here.

Sister Beatrice is now at St. Leo's High School, Ashley, Pa., while Sister Rosina is stationed at St. Mary's of the Mount High School in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Active Council Progresses

Under Jerry Mason's direction, student council has gotten off to a strong start, with many projects in the making. First in the council's business is the victory bell monument, see article p.6. The student handbook, which was nearly completed by last year's student council, is now being readied for publication.

To raise money for the victory bell monument, the council is planning several fund-raising projects. The first is to be the raffle of a 1950 Studebaker, which Mrs. M. J. Huetter has offered to donate to the school. The car is said to be in good running condition.

Other projects are still being discussed, but nothing definite has been decided for other fund raisers.

No Loss Is Defeat

by Ron Douglas

Football isn't a sport at IHM--it's an institution. All good institutions have a common purpose serving to unite their members. Until last Saturday an outsider might have looked at IHM and said that the school's sole purpose was to win football games. But if IHM only existed to win football games, there would have been nothing significant about Saturday's post-game dance. Students cheering "We love you Panthers" wouldn't have welcomed some very sad players back to reality. There wouldn't have been tears in the coaches' eyes.

Football at IHM is pledged to the growth of mature men and women. Last Saturday each student did his part in his own way. As long as this institution remains at IHM, every win will surely be a victory, but no loss will ever be a defeat.

S-P-I-R-I-T!

by Barb Daugharty
S-P-I-R-I-T! Spirit.

it can make or break a school and IHM has it made! Anyone who witnessed the spirit during and after the IHM-Lakeland game can testify to that. The spirit that was unleashed in our school Sept. 21 swept everyone within reach along with it. And I for one was proud to be a part of the Panther organization.

Democracy Contest Opens

The VFW has selected "Freedom's Challenge" as its theme for the 22nd annual Voice of Democracy contest.

This contest is open to all high school sophomores, juniors and seniors. Speeches must be at least three minutes in length, and no more than five minutes. School elimination will be held at IHM by Dec. 19, and the best three speeches will then be recorded for further competition.

State winners in the contest will receive all expense paid trips to Washington, D. C., and will compete for scholarships up to $5,000.

In the past three years IHM has had two state winners, Jim Hofmeister in 1965, and Bob McFarland in 1966.

Now we have an even greater job before us and that job is to let the school unity and spirit achieved during and after that game permeate all that this school does.

If IHM's "do-nothing" clubs could reach out and keep a piece of that spirit they could accomplish many of the worthwhile projects that are started but never reach culmination.

It's possible to shape IHM into the greatest school in Idaho, and if we can just continue with the spirit that has united this school--that's just what we'll do!

Five New Faculty Members Arrive

Returning IHM students were met for the second consecutive year by a new principal. Sister M. Ida greeted students at the door as they arrived for registration Aug. 26-27.

To replace Sisters Nadine, Rosina and Beatrice, who were transferred to Pennsylvania, and to augment the already short-handed faculty, were four energetic teachers. Three of them, Mr. John DeLong, Sister Christine Marie, and Sister M. Helen Ann, could be placed in the same generation as their students. None of the three had had much teaching experience if any before coming to IHM.

Sister M. Charisse is returning to continue her string of 26 teaching years at IHM, the last of which was 1957.

Sister Ida Heads School

Sister M. Ida, new principal at IHM, was last stationed at Olyphant, Pa., where she taught for two years.

Having instructed high school students for fifteen years in various subjects, primarily math, Sister Ida commented that she loves working with teenagers and always has.

When asked her opinion of IHM she replied that she likes the school and students very much and aims "to make it the best school in Idaho--that means scholastically as well as athletically."

Sister Christine Marie

Sister Christine Marie, a chemistry major with a Bachelor of Arts degree from Marywood College, comes to IHM from Nyack, New York. There, at St. Ann's grade school, she taught math and geography to sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students.

At IHM Sister teaches chemistry, geometry and physics, and moderates the Math and Science club.

This is Sister Christine Marie's first trip to the West, and she enjoys the relaxed pace and unsmogged air. She likes IHM -- both its unity and spirit. "The kids are so concerned about the school" she said. "The spirit is really great...it really is."

Sister Helen Ann

Sister M. Helen Ann for the past year taught literature, religion and art at St. Mary's Junior High School, Goldsboro, N.C.

At IHM she is freshman homeroom moderator, teaches religion and literature to freshman and sophomores, and later in the year will be instructing an art class. On Wednesday mornings she acts as faculty advisor to the student council.

Sister Helen Ann is impressed with the Coeur d'Alene area. "It's beautiful! The mountains give me inspiration and hope," she said.

Mr. John DeLong

Mr. John DeLong, who teaches biology, general science, and government at IHM, graduated from Thompson Falls High School, Montana, in 1964. From there he went on to Carroll College and majored in sociology, with a minor in biology.

At Carroll he was a 4 year letterman and each year was named All-Conference linebacker.

The 23 year-old bachelor was also listed in the book WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES.

As assistant football coach at IHM he has helped the team to a 3-1 season, thus far.

Sister Charisse

Sister M. Charisse, Senior homeroom teacher, is an alumnus of IHM. She boarded at the old Fort Sherman convent while attending the Academy, and later returned to the school as a nun to teach from 1931 to 1957.

A nun for forty years now, Sister Charisse holds both a BA and MA in education.

For the past 11 years Sister has worked at Central Catholic Boy's High School in Portland, Ore. The student enrollment there was about five times that of IHM.

Sister Charisse now teaches religion, English III and English IV at IHM.

PANTHERS SPORTS

Between The Showerheads

THE "ALL-OVERNESS" YET "BEGINNING" OF IT ALL
by Jerry Mason

It was quiet in the classroom. Nobody knew quite what to say or do; nobody knew what had really happened in the several hours before. And then somebody started singing downstairs...like a chorus or something...they were singing something like, "We love you Panthers." and it sounded like the walls were going to come down. Then one person in the room who knew it had to be done stood up and said, "If we have a school like that, we should go down to them." And the whole team got up and went down to where everybody was singing like it was all planned or something. And nobody wanted to do anything but cry and feel sorry.

Some wanted to get drunk; some wanted to go outside and sit down; some just wanted to feel sad. And then like it had been hanging in the gym for three years something big and unknowingly heavy fell down and hit everybody. The IHM Panthers finally had a successful football team.

Sure three touchdowns said they didn't but 217 pairs of wet eyes said they did. Everybody was kissing and hugging each other and the gym kind of shed a big tear over the whole scene. It was the most real thing that IHM had ever experienced. Nobody on that team had ever seen a final score that wasn't in the Panther's favor since they had been Panthers themselves. And although they knew there were 21 points telling them the opposite, they were sure they had won something. And they knew they were going to win it again on Monday and Tuesday and Wednesday and every other day in their lives, no matter what the scoreboard said.

What really happened that night? Nobody can say for certain. Was it the upset of the year? Did the Panther football dynasty finally topple? No. It was much more simple yet much more important than all that. Nobody wanted to set fire to Lakeland High School or instigate a mass riot. They just wanted to keep on winning the way Mr. Boyle had taught them to win. They just wanted to keep on feeling the way Saturday night made them feel. They just wanted to show the world what had been shown to them. They just wanted to be Panthers and to tell everybody that they were from IHM.

Panthers Nip Loggers In 4th

In a close 25-20 contest IHM defeated Potlatch, August 31, to boost their winningstreak to 32 games without a loss.

At halftime the score read 12-6 in favor of the Panthers. But after the third quarter started the Loggers carried the ball for a second touchdown. IHM, then down by 1 point, soon took the small side of a 20-12 score as the determined Loggers cashed in for seven more points. Late in the fourth quarter the Panthers regained their momentum and scored on a long run by fullback Don Shannon. After recovering an outside kick they began once again to move the ball. Shannon finally capped the drive by a short run over guard and gave the Panthers the final edge.

IHM ran up some 300-plus yards in the game and gave future opponents something to worry about.

Kootenai Falls To IHM Squad

IHM tripped up the Kootenai Warriors in a first half battle to take a 26-6 victory in the non-conference battle at Kootenai, Sept. 13.

The Panthers hit pay-dirt about midway through the first quarter when full back Don Shannon burst over the goal line on a three yard run. In the second quarter Jeff Norton intercepted a pass by Kootenai quarterback, Steve Chatfield, on the Warrior five. Two plays later Norton carried the ball into the endzone on a two yard keeper to make the score 13-0. IHM pushed in to score for the third time in the first half when Bob Riggs plunged in from three yards out. Jack Wardian then kicked his second extra point to give the Panthers a 20-0 lead at half.

In the second half the Panthers lost their momentum and Kootenai picked it up momentarily. Steve Chatfield released a 40 yard touchdown pass to Steve Razor who accounted for Kootenai's only score. Shortly after the kickoff Shannon took the ball around end for a 52 yard gain before being hauled down from behind by a Kootenai linebacker. An off-tackle run by Norton then gave the final score.

Panthers Come Back Strong

The Panther football team, after losing to Lakeland a week before, came back the night of the 28th to wallop Priest River 30-13.

IHM quickly established a running game in the first quarter but fumbled soon after they crossed midfield. A tough Panther defense forced the Spartans to punt on their first series of downs. The blue squad began to roll once more and on second down Jerry Mason rambled 44 yards to paydirt.

The next score came on a 1 yard dive by quarterback Jeff Norton early in the second quarter. A few minutes later the Panthers penetrated deep into Spartan territory and Norton again sprinted into the endzone. The final touchdown of the first half was set up by a 25 yard pass from John McFarland to Mason, taking the ball to the Spartan 1 yard line. Don Shannon leaped over defenders to pick up the yard, making the score 24-0 at half.

Six minutes through the third quarter "Golden Boy" Shannon waddled 51 yards for six more points on a fake punt. From that point on the Panther second squad took over. Moments later with a key block from the referee the Spartans scored on an 80 yard pass play from Dennis Veltri to Dale King. Veltri then ran the extra point.

The fourth quarter was dominated by the young Panthers on both offense and defense and the 30-7 advantage seemed as if it would hold. But with two minutes left on the clock and a time out on the field Ventris sprinted nine yards for the last touchdown of the game.

IHM managed to pile up 426 net yards to Priest River's 165. When asked for his impression of the game, head manager Bob Blessing said, "We socked their eyebrows off!"

Lakeland Breaks IHM Streak

The night of the 21st saw the first defeat of an IHM football team in 33 games. A large Lakeland squad broke the streak by a 21-0 advantage.

Hawk fullback Rick Hindberg was the first man to hit paydirt as he went 29 yards early in the second quarter for the score. Neil Bradbury added the extra point. Soon after, the tough IHM defense forced the Hawks into a punting situation but the Panthers lost the ball on the second of their four fumbles. Lawrence Bradbury then ran for six more on an end sweep and Hindberg dived in for the point after, making the score 14-0 in favor of Lakeland at the half.

The Panther defense once again made it rough going for the Hawks and neither team was able to score in the third quarter. IHM fumbles however, kept the ball in Lakeland's hands most of the time. After a long fourth quarter battle Neil Bradbury finally managed to score the third time for Lakeland. His younger brother carried for the extra point and the 21-0 reading on the scoreboard held for the remaining four minutes of the game.

Between The Book Ends

by Barb Daugharty

American classics are hard to come by. We'll always have Twain's "Huck Fin" and "Tom Sawyer" but now a new book has earned that hard-to-get title and is soon to join their ranks. That book is "True Grit" by Charles Portis. "True Grit" is a rollicking story of an American adventure. It is original yet recognizable as a story of the heritage that has developed these United States.

Mattie Ross as the fourteen year old heroine who is out to avenge her father's death is frank and refreshing. LaBoeuf, the Texan, and Rooster Cogburn, "The meanest available U.S. Marshall in Fort Smith," are the rough-tough men who grudgingly take Mattie along with them on their search for Tom Chaney, the wanted man.

"True Grit" is an action-packed novel of American life that is well worth reading and that will be ranked high on the list of American classics in the years to come.

R. Wallace Pischel Gets Contract

Sister M. Mariel, year-book advisor, has decided to switch from the Year-book House, Kansas City, Mo., to R. Wallace Pischel Inc., Pasco Wa. for publication of the 1968-69 "Le Coeur."

Seniors will hold their first annual staff meeting Oct. 7.

Five Senior Singers Tiptoe "Daintily" Tiptoe Through The Tulips

A senior band accompanied by assistant football coach John DeLong, used a "tin can" beat and Jim Dolan's melodious voice to win the Pep club sponsored Battle of the Bands, Sept. 20.

Held the night before IHM's gridiron clash with Lakeland, the special spirit assembly saw five bands compete for the crowd's applause. None, however, came close to "Jugger and the Belly Button Lints" in popularity. The winning group's selections were "Bottle of Wine", "Tiptoe Through the Tulips", and "Rock of Ages". The crowd went into a frenzy when, during the second selection, three of the band members tiptoed around the stage throwing handfuls of penny candy to the audience.

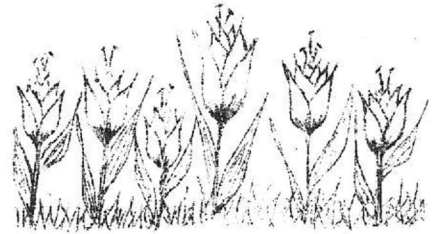

Members of the "Lints" were Jim 'Jugboy' Dolan, Jim 'the Dink' Riplinger, Jeff 'Rolly' Wachter, Donald 'Duck' Shannon, Jerry 'Pinboy' Mason, and John 'Fuzz-head' DeLong.

Other bands included Ole Black Joe and the Panther Advocates, The All Day Suckers, Pearl Buck and the Hominy Grits, and The Blues.

A hectic gunnysack race was won by the freshman, with seniors taking second.

The upperclassmen made a strong come-back, though, by winning the fast-moving grapefruit race.

Ending the night's activities were an auction, which saw Sister Joan paying $2 for a kitten, and the real grande finale, an ear-shattering Panther pep rally.

Victory Bell Monument Nearing Construction Stage

IHM's victory bell monument is fast approaching the construction stage through the efforts of student council.

According to Jerry Mason, student council president, the stonework will be done by Frank Fruechtl, from Spokane, Wa. Most of the rock needed for construction has already been supplied.

No date has yet been given for completion of the monument. It was decided by student council that the $500 estimate was more than could be afforded, and the plans are being considered for scaling down.

The bell for the monument was cast in 1905. It was originally used in the Fort Sherman convent, and has not been used for six years, since the old convent was demolished.

"Mourning Sons"
Play at Dance

The "Mourning Sons" from Rathdrum, Idaho supplied music Sept. 27 at IHM's first band dance of the year.

Students turned out in large numbers to celebrate the Panther's victory over Priest River, and most agreed that the live dance was a pleasant change over the usual record hops.

The senior class sponsored the affair.

French III Class Receives Books

by Mel Koep

"Ooo-la-la! A typical exclamation from a typical French III student, one of seven who just received new text books. Made up of selections from French literature, the book contains stories, drama, dialogue, and poetry. The class, which is the first at IHM to take a third year language course, will be studying the work of such French authors as Jean-Paul Sartre, Nobel prize winner in literature for 1964, Jean de La Fontaine, Andre Praga, and Henri Bosco.

Since the class is carried on entirely in French, Soeur Alphonsa a dit, <<Je ne suis sûr, mais je pense que ces livres seront plus intéressants pour les élèves et pour moi aussi.>>

Following her example, two French scholars expressed their opinions: Lola Guimond a dit, <<Mon Dieu! Ce livre est incroyable.>> Dave Yeager a remarqué, <<C'est très beau, mais c'est très difficile pour une personne comme moi, (très stupid). Mais je l'aime!>>

"Sing Out" Comes To Coeur d'Alene

The teen movement "Up With People" was introduced to IHM students at an assembly Sept. 4. Bill Mustard, musical director of "Sing out Spokane", and Linda Copley, a senior member of the singing cast, presented the program along with two other "Sing out Spokane" members.

The agenda included a film entitled "Sing Out", which showed the recent European tour of an "Up With People" cast.

Friday, Sept. 27, "Sing Out Spokane" gave a two hour concert at the NIJC auditorium. The following morning about 100 youths turned out to form a "Sing Out Coeur d'Alene". Members of the Spokane cast took charge of starting the Coeur d'Alene group, as they did recently in Lewiston, Idaho.

Fresh Given Orientation

Student council sponsored an informal orientation assembly Sept. 18 for freshmen and upper-classmen who registered at IHM for the first time.

Conducted by seniors Jerry Mason, Ron Douglas, Linda Novak, and Mary Bauman, the meeting informed the newcomers of the extracurricular activities available at IHM, and of the common rules of the school.

The main purpose of the assembly was to get the new students to become active in the school.
