as it loomed with all the agonies of death. "Vidi montes" but that same cross from the heights of the mountains in the New World more than 1900 years later as it shines gloriously from the Andes 14,000 feet above our level tells of the triumph of the priestly Kingdom He founded and perpetuated: "From the rising of the sun until its going down a sacrifice shall be offered and My name shall be great among the peoples." In fact, this Kingship of Christ as the last feast instituted of our own age is commemorated on the altar of the priest's daily sacrifice, emblazoned on the leaves of his daily prayer, the "Office," is brought to the piety and devotion of the lay of his people—to the point of heroism when in the last persecution of our neighbor Mexico, the only battle cry of the martyrs of Christ rang gloriously through Christendom: "Viva Cristo el Rey."

Party Given in Honor of Juniors

Thursday afternoon at two o'clock in the academy auditorium the seniors gave a party for the juniors. A splendid programme was planned by the entertainment committee. It consisted of a reading by Mary O'Neil and Bernice Wernette, musical selections, and a boy's quartet.

The afternoon was spent in dancing, playing games and having contests, after which a delicious luncheon was served.

The Academy football team has completed a successful season without any serious mishap. Our team won five games and lost one. That one was to the strong St. Maries team at the beginning of the season.

Richie Myers fleet backfield star was chosen as one of the thirty men to represent the Inland Empire for the All Star game in Spokane. These thirty men are the pick of the Inland Empire, which includes part of Washington and Montana as well as Idaho. The choice of Myers as one of these stars is a great honor to the school as well as to Coach Guimond who has worked so hard with the boys.

The school and the team wish Richie the best of luck when he plays in Spokane on December the seventh. All who can should journey to Spokane to cheer him on that day.
