ACADEMY NOTES

The Academy of the Immaculate Heart of Mary resumed studies for its twenty-eighth scholastic year Tuesday, September 2nd, with the usual large enrollment.

A High Mass in honor of the Holy Ghost was celebrated by our beloved Pastor, Reverend J. J. Moye, C. SS. R. After Mass Father Moye gave the students an inspiring talk, greeting the old and welcoming the new students. He encouraged all to put forth greater efforts in their school work.

The Religious Instructions given by the Fathers to the pupils began the second week of school.

Our Graduates

Mary O'Neil of the graduating class of 1930 is attending Marywood College, Scranton, Pennsylvania. Mary was awarded the scholarship given by Marywood College to our Academy for the highest average in the Classical Course.

William Healy and Daniel Dunnigan are in Spokane at Gonzaga University.

Ernest Roe and Robert Cope are at Columbia University in Portland.

Bernice Wernette and James Breen are at the University at Moscow.

Clarice Streeter has entered the training school at the Sacred Heart Hospital in Spokane.

Ronald MacDonald has gone to Boston and entered Boston College to study the pre-medical course.

Miss Lucille Downs who for several years was dramatic teacher at the Academy was married in New York early in September to Doctor Richard Devereaux of Spokane. Miss Downs had spent the summer touring Europe.

Miss Katherine Steele '26 is teaching the dramatics class at the Academy this year.

Francis Harvey and Adrian McKenna entered the Redemptorists' Preparatory College at Oakland.
