have started rehearsal for their first annual minstrel show and dance to be given immediately after Lent. The show is to be directed by Jim Eagen who has a vast experience in the minstrel show business, having played in and directed many shows of that nature in his past life.

A movement is on foot to establish a Circle of the Columbian Squires in Coeur d'Alene. This circle is to be sponsored by the K. of C. Council of Coeur d' Alene.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The Catholic Women's League enjoyed many socials just before Lent. At one held in January, Father Edward Dockery, gave an intensely interesting and enlightening lecture on the "Vatican City". This is the first of a series of instructive lectures that Father is going to give to the members of the League. Father Dockery is one of the most popular after-dinner speakers in Coeur d'Alene.

After the lecture cards and refreshments were enjoyed. Ten tables were used. Honors in bridge being won by Mrs. J. Zilka and in pinochle by Mrs. George Hamilton. The hostesses for the day were: Mesdames Gordon, Broderick, Klug, Johnson and Fruetcl.

At a meeting of the League held at the Rectory January 19th, plans were made for a card party to be held January 28th, at the home of Mrs. Secour on 15th and Garden. The ladies were delightfully surprised at the large attendance on the day of the party,—at it honors in bridge went to Mrs. J. F. Desilet and in pinochle to Mrs. T. F. Reid. The hostesses on this occasion were: Mesdames W. J. Guimond, Charles Ball and Fred Allen.

The latest social function of the League took place in the home of Mrs. Charles Secour. This party was a great success in many ways. Ten tables of cards were in play and honors in bridge went to Mrs. T. Cope and in pinochle to Mrs. M. Ranoin. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles Secour assisted by Mesdames Chas. Pellitier, Albert Secour and W. Secour.

Lincoln's Birthday

On the afternoon of February 12th, Lincoln's Birthday, the Reverend Father Fagen, C. SS. R., gave the student body a very interesting talk on our debt to Abraham Lincoln. Father told us how much we owe to the 16th president as the Preserver of the Union. If it had not been for his untiring efforts we would not be One as we are today, and we all know what that means. Father also brought to our minds more vividly the importance of bringing our country through so great a crisis as the Civil War. Then, too, brother was fighting against brother, and that made it much more difficult than if we were combating an antagonistic foreign foe.

Children's Mission

A three days mission was given to the pupils in the grades by the Reverend Father Fitzgerald, C. SS. R., and Reverend Father Nugent, C. SS. R. Services were held each day at 11 o'clock A. M., and at 3 o'clock.

The Fathers praised the children for the interest and the attention they gave, as well as for their intelligent and splendid answers to questions about religion.

Junior and Senior Party

On Thursday, February 12th, the Junior Class was entertained in the school auditorium at a Valentine Party, given in their honor by the Senior Class. The afternoon was spent in games and dancing. Music was furnished by the Academy orchestra.

INFORMATION CLASS FOR NON-CATHOLICS

Every Tuesday Evening, at 7:30
In the Rectory Hall

Knowing the large number of non-Catholics in our parish and neighborhood who are eager to be informed about the teachings and practices of our Holy Religion, we have decided to give a course of lectures for their special benefit.

The lectures will be given, not in the way of controversial sermons, but rather in the form of simple and familiar instructions.

After the subject of the evening has been discussed, questions may be asked of the Father instructor.

The meetings will be conducted in a spirit of the broadest Christian charity and kindness.

There will be no abuse or harsh and unfriendly criticism of the religious opinions and beliefs of those outside the Church.

Let every member of the Congregation join with the Priests of the parish in this Apostolate to the non-Catholics of our neighborhood and city.

Your non-Catholic friends, relations and neighbors are forever asking questions about your Faith. Many of them are already honestly interested in the Church. Others are without prejudice, well disposed. They are positively eager to grasp the inviting and helping hand, and are waiting and praying for the "Kindly Light."

Bring them to the Information Class, Tuesday nights in the Rectory Hall.

Even though they do not become Catholics, they will learn to respect and admire your Church and Faith.

Catholics may come to the Information Class only when they bring a non-Catholic with them.

Here is a rich and magnificent field for missionary effort for both Priests and people.

If each family of the parish were to bring each year ONLY ONE non-Catholic to the Information Class, what comfort and joy we would bring to the Heart of the Holy Redeemer, and what a wonderful harvest of Souls!

Daily offer some prayers and good deeds for the success of this Apostolic movement.

Single out ONE SOUL for whose conversion you are particularly anxious and for THAT ONE SOUL pray in a most special manner.

Tell all the Catholics you meet in the parish and out of the parish about the Information Class at the Catholic Church, St. Thomas,

"They who instruct many to justice shall shine as stars to all eternity."

The Redemptorist Fathers,
Coeur d'Alene.

VISITS TO THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

The number of Catholics, who take advantage of the indulgence conceded to all who visit the Blessed Sacrament, is large enough to excite the wonder of non-Catholics who see them entering the downtown churches during lunch periods and whenever there is a moment to spare. It is equally true, however, that the indulgence of three hundred days granted to those who on entering a church—and before all other acts of piety—go to the altar of the Blessed Eucharist and there adore, if but for a short time, is not as generally known as it should be.

There are few Catholics who have not found comfort and strength and peace in the silent church before their Eucharistic God. The further merit to be gained by fulfilling the terms and thus gaining this indulgence should induce even greater numbers of Catholics to embrace every opportunity of visiting Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, if only for a few moments. On the other hand this indulgence, by inducing Catholics to make their way immediately to the earthly throne of the King of Heaven and earth, will have a tendency to nullify the oft repeated calumny of anti-Catholics that we honor the saints to the prejudice of our worship of God.

Readers of this paper will be performing a meritorious act if they spread the knowledge of this opportunity among their friends and acquaintances.
