CATHOLIC WOMAN'S LEAGUE NOTES

A patriotic program was given in honor of Washington's birthday at the meeting of the Woman's Catholic League on February 22, 1932: "Life of Washington," by Mrs. Helmer; "Religion of Washington," by Mrs. Braune; "Outline of Bi-Centennial Celebration," by Mrs. T. S. Cope; "Sketches of Washington's Life," by Mrs. Steele.

Mrs. Helmer had charge of the program, which proved very interesting and instructive.

An enjoyable program was held March 7. Roll call was responded to with current events, followed by a paper on "American Shrines," by

The Catholic Woman's League sponsored a very successful St. Patrick's bridge tea at the rectory. Shamrocks and other decorations were used, making an appropriate setting for a St. Patrick's Day party.

Twenty tables of bridge and pinochle were in play, and honors in pinochle were won by Mrs. O. J. Shireman and Mrs. Ed Cyr, and in bridge by Mrs. W. J. Merrigan and Mrs. Smith.

Refreshments were served. The committee in charge was Mrs. T. R. Gerdes, Mrs. J. P. Zilka, Mrs. T. S. Cope, Mrs. M. Lawson and Mrs. Joe Johnson. They were assisted by Miss Maxine Gerdes, Miss Ruth Reid and Miss Agnes Cope.

OUR SHRINE

During the past month there were 56 thanksgivings for spiritual favors—28 temporal favors and 18 special favors granted through Our Mother of Perpetual Help. The Novena devotions take place every Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 P.M., also at 7:30 P.M.

ACADEMY NOTES

Eugene Grismer, a senior student at the Academy of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and son of Mrs. Theresa Grismer, died early Sunday morning, March 5, at the Lakeside Hospital, following an attack of appendicitis. He had been operated on the preceding Wednesday.

The funeral was held Tuesday morning, March 8, at 9:00 o'clock. Six members of the senior and junior classes acted as pallbearers, while other students served on the altar. The pallbearers were: John O'Neil, Patrick Reagen, John Guimond, Francis Mahoney, Gerard Martell and George Ryan.

The servers were: John Feldhausen, cross bearer; John Beck and Robert Ryan, acolytes, and John Gerdes and Eugene McDonald, thurifers. Ushers were Paul Braune and Edward Boucher.

The Academy students formed a guard of honor as the body was taken into the church and again when it was taken from the church following the Solemn Requiem Mass, chanted by the children's choir.

Eugene attended the Academy for several years and took an active interest in athletic activities.

The faculty and student body extend their deepest sympathy to the bereaved Grismer family.

We are again grateful to Mr. M. C. Helmer for several pictures of George Washington, which he recently presented to our school.

ARCHCONFRATERNITY OF OUR MOTHER OF PERPETUAL HELP AND ST. ALPHONSUS
 Shrine of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, 919 Indiana Avenue, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho

MEMBERSHIP

To become a member of the Archconfraternity, it is necessary:

1. To be registered as a member in a church where the Confraternity is canonically erected.
2. To make the act of consecration to Our Lady and St. Alphonsus. This may be made privately.

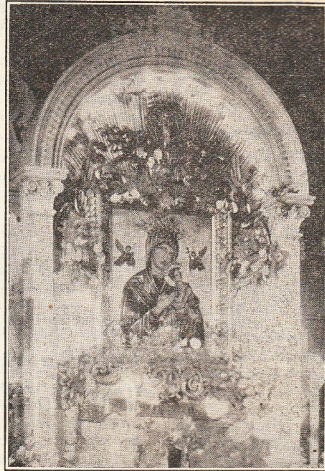

Plenary Indulgences

The members of the Confraternity may gain a plenary indulgence on the day they have their names registered.

Once a month on the day chosen for the renewal of the Act of Consecration.

Lastly, a plenary indulgence may be gained in the hour of death.

The conditions for all the above indulgences are: Confession, Holy Communion, Visit to the church where the Confraternity is established, with prayers for intention of the Pope. (If the visit cannot be made to the church of the Confraternity, then any other church may be substituted. Religious living in community may make the visit in their church or oratory.)

ADVANTAGES OF THE CONFRATERNITY

1. The members are assured of the constant protection of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.
2. Through this devotion the members are endowed with an influence almost miraculous for the softening and converting of obstinate sinners.
3. The members share in the public devotions and other good works of the entire Archconfraternity.

Eighth Grade—Elizabeth Colburn, Helen Feldhausen.

Seventh Grade—Theresa Michaud, Elsie Baumgartner, Carmen Servick.

Sixth Grade—Gertrude Raegan, Catherine Braune, Marion Moran.

Fourth Grade—William McDonell, Lucy Michaud, Harold Barnes, Maxine Hebert.

Third Grade—Creed Allen, Roderick Garvey, Grace Helmer.

THE REDEMPTRISTS

To the lovers of Our Lady of Perpetual Help it will be of interest to know something of the Congregation of priests who in the Providence of God were instrumental in spreading devotion to God's Holy Mother under this appealing title. The Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer—commonly called "The Redemptorists"—has had the singular privilege of bringing our Blessed Mother into the hearts and homes of Catholic

3. Persons at a distance may be enrolled as members when they apply for admission.

4. Members should always wear a medal of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

5. Members should have in their homes a blessed picture of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

Partial Indulgences

Seven years and seven times forty days if the members visit the church of the Confraternity.

Three hundred days if the members recite morning, noon and night, the following ejaculation: "O Mary, Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for me. My Protector, St. Alphonsus, in all my wants make me have recourse to Mary."

Three hundred days once a day if they devoutly visit a church where there is a picture of Mother of Perpetual Help or St. Alphonsus.

Sixty days for every work of piety or charity of any kind.

All above indulgences may be applied to the Souls in Purgatory.

4. Finally, by the express will of the Superior-General of the Redemptorist Fathers, the members have a special share in the fruits and merits of the missions, the pious exercises, the apostolic labors, the prayers, the penances, and all other good works without exception which are performed by the entire congregation of the Redemptorist Fathers.

people all over the world. In doing so they were but imitating the example of their holy founder, St. Alphonsus de Liguori, who ranks with the foremost of all ages in defending the prerogatives of the Immaculate Mother of God and in leading souls to a more intimate knowledge and love of God through devotion to His Holy Mother.

The Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer was established by St. Alphonsus de Liguori in the year 1732, and approved by Pope Benedict XIV in 1749. The nature of the institute is both apostolic and contemplative, as we learn from the words of the holy founder: "The life of the members of the Congregation is neither purely contemplative nor entirely active; it is a combination of both."

Being essentially apostolic, the end and aim of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer is to continue the work of the Redemption of Christ in this world by means of missions, retreats and other apostolic labors. Its sphere of activity is
