Margaret Clarke, 83

Margaret Mary ('41 BEAUDOIN) CLARKE, 83, passed away on Wednesday, Jan. 3, 2007, in Spokane. Mary was born and raised in Coeur d'Alene.

She moved to Spokane after graduation to attend The Sacred Heart School of Nursing. Mary returned to Coeur d'Alene and worked for many years for Dr FOX, Dr HUSTED and Dr HAWKINS. She also worked for numerous years with Dr McKAY in Spokane.

Her later years were spent working at Sacred Heart where she retired at age 75. Not one to be idle, she then became a volunteer for SCOPE and Hospice. Her exceptional caring skills was evident in her work with Hospice patients.

During these years she was able to find time to camp and hone her skills as a fly fisherperson. She even tied her own flies. Mary loved and was close to her grandchildren, but was a special companion and friend with Stephanie. Mary loved life and lived it to the fullest. She was loved by many and will be missed by all.

The family wishes to express their appreciation to the staff of Sullivan Park Care Center for all the care and love shown to Mary. In lieu of flowers the family suggests donations be given to Hospice of Spokane.

Mary is survived by her daughter Jayme (Jerry) STAUFFER; her grandchildren Joe (Amy) WALKER and Stephanie (Kevin) BOWMAN; and her great-grandchildren, Justine, Travis, Justin and Madison.

Funeral mass will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 13, 2007, at St. Mary Catholic Church, 304 S. Adams Road, Spokane Valley. Arrangements have been entrusted to Hennessey Valley Funeral Home and Crematory.
